MARKETING TO GET ATTENTION

Will Be One of Principal Subjects
Discussed At Annual Rush County
Farm Bureau Association

IN RUSHVILLE NEXT TUESDAY

Most of Afternoon Will Be Devoted to Round Table—Will be Open
To All Farmers

One of the special things to be taken up at the annual meeting of the Rush County Farm Bureau, at the Graham Annex auditorium in Rushville next Tuesday, will be further steps in perfecting cooperative stock marketing. This is one of the main objectives of the Farm Bureau and much effort will be centered on it during the forthcoming year.

With Rush county farmers back from the annual convention of the Indiana Farm Bureau Federation today, attention turned to the county meeting. The state sessions closed with a banquet Friday night at the Lincoln hotel in Indianapolis.

Rush county farmers are proud of the progress that has been made along co-operative marketing lines this year and believe that the time is now ripe for further development. For this reason, some time at the county convention will be devoted to a discussion of the subject.

Most of the afternoon session will be given over to a round table discussion of organization problems and members will be given a chance to express their wishes regarding organization plans and the progress that has been made.

Neither the business meeting nor the discussions will be confined to the delegate body, but will be open to any farmers who may wish to attend. There will be between 100 and 125 delegates, each township being entitled to one delegate for every ten members or fraction thereof.

There will be no special address at the annual meeting this year, but the time will be devoted to hearing the reports of officers, the election of officers and the informal discussion of farm problems.

No definite returns were available today regarding the results of the annual membership campaign in Rush county, although the canvassing teams were supposed to report by today. All reports available, however, indicate that this year's membership will be exceeded.

BANKS ALSO TO CASH WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

This Applies to All Except Registered Stamps. Which Must be
Cashed Where Bought

MONEY ORDER WINDOW HOURS

Banks will cash War Savings Stamps of 1919 issue, the same as they did those of the 1918 issue, it was announced at the postoffice today, to correct any wrong impression that may have been received following the announcement Thursday urging holders of the stamps to present them for payment at once, because the postoffice force will be too busy during the Christmas rush to take care of this business.

This does not apply to registered War Savings Stamps, however, as they have to be cashed at the postoffice where they were purchased. Persons presenting their War Stamps, which fall due January 1, for payment now, will receive their checks soon after the first of the year, it is assured. The Rushville postoffice also has the new issue of War Savings Certificates, for which War Stamps may be exchanged.

It was also announced at the postoffice today that beginning Monday, Dec. 10, the money order window at the postoffice will be open from 8:00 a. m. to 6:00 p. m., each day of the week except Saturday, when it will remain open until 7 p. m. The present hours are 7:00 a. m. to 7:00 p. m., the same as the stamp window, but the postoffice force is busy the first hour in the morning with the mail, and there is little demand for money orders during that hour, it is stated.

2-DAY COMMUNITY MEETING

Manilla Plans Program For Farmers
December 13 And 14

A two day community meeting, sponsored by the business men of Manilla will be held next week, December 13 and 14 at the auditorium in Manilla, during which time the matters of interest to the farmers will be taken up and special speakers will be engaged. The program is nearing completion and will be announced early next week.

The headline speaker will be Walter B. Remley of the International Harvester company of Chicago, and Elmer Hutchinson of Arlington will have a place on the program, and will speak on "Winter Wheat Flour," representing the National Grain Dealers association.

PARENT, TEACHERS BODY IS APPROVED

Rushville Ministers Commend Movement to Join Home And School in Organization

SCHOOL SURVEY TUESDAY

First Effort of New Association Will be Inspection of Rushville Buildings

Unstinted approval of the Rushville Parent-Teachers association, that has lately been formed, is voiced by pastors of Rushville churches in brief statements issued today at the behest of the officers of the association. All point to the good results that are certain to come from an organization that brings teachers and parents closer together.

Close to 150 patrons of the schools have signified their willingness to join the association. The first meeting of the association had been planned for next Wednesday evening, with Benjamin J. Barris, state superintendent of public instruction, as the speaker, but he was unable to come, and arrangements have now been made for a school survey on Tuesday.

The survey will start at the Havens school, where patrons are asked to meet at one o'clock. Following an inspection of this building, they will go to the Jackson school and then to the Graham high school and the Graham Annex. Plenty of automobiles will be provided. At the high school assembly room, at four o'clock, the afternoon's inspection trip will be discussed from the viewpoint of the school teachers, the school board, and the parents, and school children will describe the playground apparatus at their respective buildings. Birney D. Farthing, county superintendent of schools, will speak on "Classification of Elementary Schools."

Neither the Rev. L. E. Brown, pastor of the Main Street Christian church, or the Rev. W. H. Hargett, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, issued any prepared statement on their attitude in regard to the parent-teacher organization, but both expressed full approval of the idea.

The Rev. Mr. Hargett said that he had seen such associations function with great good for the schools and the parents as well, in other cities where he had held pastorates. The Rev. Brown declared that any agency which would bring the teachers and school patrons in closer touch with one another was to be commended.

Statements by other ministers are as follows:

By R. W. SAGE
(Pastor First Baptist Church)

Too much can not be said in favor of a parent-teacher's association. It is imperative that the two most potent forces in a child's life, the home and the school, should have the fullest understanding, sympathy and co-operation. This can only occur when, by frank and kindly discussion, they each come to understand their common problems and appreciate their common opportunities.

By GIBSON WILSON
(Pastor 1st Presbyterian Church)

My acquaintance with the Parent-Teacher Association has been such that I am led to give the work my hearty support. I am glad that Rushville has such an organization.

The Spirit of The Double-Barred Cross

I am the spirit of the Double-Barred Cross.
Within my mantle there goes forth the sweet ministry of the three graces: Faith in the possibilities of humanity, Hope for the hopelessness of earth, and Charity for the helpless.
I am the spirit of the new age that appeals to the latent powers of manhood. Within me lie the vital forces which make for the permanence and stability of the nation.
My influence goes forth to the most remote habitations of man with a message of cheer and makes socially efficient the spirit of human helpfulness.
I am the symbol of happiness and efficiency as reflected in a vigorous body and mind.
In my right hand I hold the elements of prosperity and the chief asset of every community—vital energy.
I am the bond that keeps intact the home and within my protecting arms are kept safe the lives of little children.
I am the guaranty of the morale of a united people.
To me is given the mission of making man's body a fit "Temple of the Living God." With prophetic vision I see through the veil of the mystic future and hear the cry of posterity "Give us the heritage of life in its fullness which God hath ordained shall be ours."
I am that divine urge of creative energy through which mankind aspires to the highest plane of living.
I am the spirit of the Double-Barred Cross.

INDIANS INCREASING SAYS ANNUAL REPORT

Redmen Show Gain in Population
Since 1913 And Today There are
344,303 In U. S.

ARE FINANCIALLY PROSPEROUS

Washington, Dec. 8—Contrary to the universal belief that the American Indian is gradually dying off, the annual report of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs today revealed that the Redmen are steadily increasing.

"Since 1913," the report said, "the Indian population has increased more than 13,000, until today they number 344,303."

The report also showed the Indians to be in a prosperous financial condition, with individual and tribal property valued at $1,010,870,519, a gain of $283,124,122 over last year. Individual property alone was set at $535,956,774, an increase of $6,275,548 in one year.

In the past year, allotments of land embracing 1,904,000 acres, principally on reservations in Montana, South Dakota, Arizona and California were made to 3,923 Indians, the report stated.

The Indians also received more than $50,000,000 for rental of lands, timber taken from the Minnesota National Forest, oil and gas leases and payment of logging and milling operations on their land, the report said.

SEES TAX REDUCTIONS AS AID TO PROSPERITY

Mellon Tells Congress That Return
to Prosperity Can be Continued
By Lower Taxes

SAYS BUSINESS IS OVERTAXED

Washington, Dec. 8—Business and industrial prosperity is returning to the United States this year after two lean years of post-war depression and can be continued through tax reductions, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, told congress in his annual report Friday.

The burden of high and "unsound" taxes now imposed upon American business, which "would have been thought fantastic and impossible of payment" before the war, constitutes a "most insidious menace to continued prosperity," he declared. He put the future of American economic life squarely up to congress.

"The opportunity is presented to congress," he said, "to make the tax structure of the United States conform more closely to normal conditions and to remove the inequalities in that structure which directly injure our prosperity and cause strain upon our economic fabric."

As a result of amazing recuperation from the depression of 1921 and 1922, Mellon declared, business today "generally presents the appearance of being in a sound economic condition."

MAIL ROBBERS CONVICTED

St. Louis Holdup

(By United Press)
Springfield, Ill., Dec. 8—A jury in federal court today found Morris Rudensky, Joe Koumain, Ray Madison and Byron Shelton, all of St. Louis, guilty of conspiracy of the sensational mail holdup at the Chicago and Alton depot in this city last April. Claude Smith, also of St. Louis, was found not guilty and discharged.

Each of the four men was sentenced to serve twenty-five years in the federal penitentiary at Ft. Leavenworth.

THREE COUNTIES TO JOIN IN CELEBRATION

Arrangements Made to Celebrate
Election of 3 Highest Officers in
Grand Encampment

TO BE HELD HERE JANUARY 24

Arrangements were made Friday night for a tri-county celebration here on January 24 to celebrate the election of the three highest officers in the Grand Encampment of Odd Fellows from Rush, Henry and Fayette counties. The officers to be honored are Frank McIlwaine of this city, grand patriarch; Jos. V. Painter of Middletown, grand high priest, and Earl Lines of Connersville, grand senior warden.

A parade will be held, if the weather permits, and Odd Fellows bands from the three counties will participate. The patriarch and golden rule degree teams will be given in the afternoon by the Knight-town and Connersville degree teams and the royal purple degree will be put on at night by the Arlington staff. Connersville has a degree team of seven men, which is a novelty, being the only one in the world in the higher branch of the order. Arrangements will be made with some organization to serve supper that evening. Grand officers will be present and will speak following the degree work in the evening. There will be candidates from all three counties.

Two candidates were given work in the royal purple degree Friday evening, which was the first work by Bernice encampment this fall. County lodges and Knightstown and Connersville were represented. Oysters were served after the work.

STELLA HILLIGOSS DENIED A DIVORCE

Judge Sparks Rules on Evidence
Heard Last Saturday—Refuses
To Appoint Receiver

ALLENTRAP DIVORCE ACTION

A few court matters were taken up this morning, in which evidence in the suit of William Richter, et al., against the Crescent Finance Company, et al., was heard and one of the plaintiffs, Willie B. Sullivan, was granted judgment for the amount of $471.33 on a note.

Judge Sparks this morning ruled on the evidence of the divorce suit of Stella M. Hilligoss against Claude Hilligoss, which was heard last Saturday, and the court refused the plaintiff a divorce.

In the divorce complaint of Eva Allentrap against Ira Allentrap, the plaintiff recently filed a motion for a receiver for the defendant, and this morning Judge Sparks refused the motion for the appointment of a receiver.

In the complaint of William A. Hughes against Richard Harte, a complaint for services, which has been on record for more than two years, the plaintiff filed a third paragraph, asking for $3,500 judgment.

PLAN TRIBUTE TO LATE PRESIDENT

Nationwide Observance Will Be Held
During Harding Memorial Week,
Beginning Tomorrow

AN EIGHT DAY PERIOD

President Coolidge Will Speak
Through Radio From White House
Monday Evening

County Is Organized

Rush county has been organized for the Harding Memorial Week with the appointment of bankers through the county as community chairmen, by Will O. Feudner, county chairman. They have been asked to accept contributions and have been provided with literature explaining the movement.

Washington, Dec. 8—On land and sea and through the air, tribute to Warren G. Harding, twenty-ninth President of the United States, will be paid during Harding Memorial Week which begins tomorrow and ends December 16. In every state of the Union, U. S. Territories and island possessions, an eight day period of commemoration will be observed. From the White House, where President Coolidge will speak over the radio Monday evening, in appreciation of his late Chief, to remote country school houses where exercises will be held some time during the week, the name of Harding will be eulogized. Ships of the U. S. Navy, and merchant vessels at sea will hold memorial ceremonies, according to advices received by the Harding Memorial Association here.

In churches, from coast to coast, memorial services will be held tomorrow. Mr. Harding was the staunch friend of all creeds and tribute to his practical religion will be widespread.

President Coolidge's memorial message, delivered from the White House study, will be the first radio broadcast by a President. It is expected that through powerful amplifying apparatus everyone in the land with access to radio equipment will be able to hear his words of appreciation of Warren G. Harding.

During the week social, civic, religious and fraternal organizations of every community will hold meetings in honor of the late President. At the meetings plans of the Harding Memorial Association to provide a permanent Harding tomb, preserve the Harding home at Marion as a shrine, and endow a Harding Chair of Diplomacy and Functions of Government in his name, will be explained.

Organizations which will hold Harding Memorial meetings wherever they have a membership are the Rotary, Kiwanis, Lions, Civilian and Optimist Clubs, Chambers of Commerce in every city, trade unions, Granges and Boards of Trade will devote all or part of a meeting next week to similar programs. Women's clubs, patriotic societies, Boy Scout and Girl Scout organizations have indicated that they will pay tribute during the week.

In grammar schools and University students will hold Harding Memorial exercises. Instructors will read sketches of his life, and tributes to his character and achievements.

At Army and Marine Corps posts, aboard ships of the Navy, and at stations of the Coast Guard and Coast and Geodetic Survey, brief ceremonies will be held and members of the services given an opportunity to give to the Memorial Fund. It is believed that a total of 100,000 uniformed men will contribute to the Memorial.

The Harding Memorial Association, of which President Coolidge is honorary head, and Andrew W. Mellon, secretary of the Treasury, active treasurer, expects to raise $3,000,000 in associate memberships, to finance the three-fold Memorial project.

At the request of President Coolidge governors of the states and territories have appointed state chairmen of Harding Memorial committees. These chairmen in turn, have chosen county chairmen. County chairmen have perfected organizations in communities of 1,000 or more.

"Wildcat Jordan" at Mystic

CONDITION OF STATE ROADS IS OUTLINED IN HIGHWAY BULLETIN

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 8.—Failure of two contractors to complete paving projects on State Road No. 1 (Range Line) between Carmel and 9-miles south of Kokomo, will result in three open stretches of six miles total to go through this winter, it was announced today by John D. Williams, state highway director, in the commission's weekly traffic bulletin.

However, these gaps will not continue detours now in force, for the commission has instructed the maintenance department to maintain these stretches as a gravel road. Temporary surfacing work will start immediately, and it is believed that present detours can be removed by January 1. Cost of maintaining these sections, located at the edge of Westfield, and 7 and 12-miles north of Westfield respectively, will be deducted from money due the contractors for the completed pavement which should have been opened to traffic December 1 this year.

Mr. Williams pointed out that such delays will likely not occur in next year's paving program penalties against contractors failing to complete a project on specified time, are more severe. New specifications recently adopted by the commission has the following to say on this subject:

"For each working day that any work shall remain uncompleted, after the time specified in the proposal and contract and allowed by the director for the completion of the work provided for in the plans, specifications and contract, the contractor shall be liable to the commission for all costs incurred for engineering and inspection, temporary surfacing, temporary structures, maintenance of that portion of the road uncompleted, maintenance of detours by the commission and all other expenses incurred by the commission, by reason of the contractor's failure to complete the work within the time shall be deducted from the money due the contractor."

Mr. Williams asks that heavy loads not use new grade 6-miles east of Crawfordsville on No. 33, for two or three weeks but take detour to north. No objection is made to light loads using grade. That section between a point one and a half miles east of Muncie to State which has been closed for several weeks account of construction, will be opened to traffic, December 10. The bulletin further points out that traffic on No. 3 (National Road) should drive on north side for three weeks because of new tracks being laid at this crossing by the T. H. I. & E. traction company.

Road conditions for the week of December 9-15 are set forth in the bulletin as follows:

No. 1—Construction from Carmel to 9-miles south of Kokomo with local traffic using portions of new pavement. Advise through traffic north from Indianapolis to take No. 15 and avoid detours occasioned by construction. Detour from Lakeville to South Bend on hard surface road 3-miles east; thence on pavement north to city. Closed to through traffic between Seymour and Croftsville; use Dudleytown detour.

No. 3—Monon railroad overhead bridge at Putnamville, only wide enough for one way traffic. Traffic use north side at crossing through Centerville as T. H. I. & E. traction company is laying new track. Drive carefully over narrow grade at Glenn House.

No. 5—Detour via Mitchell and Paoli over Roads 41 and 22 account of construction between Loogootee and West Baden.

No. 6—Take No. 15 leaving Indianapolis on Northwestern Avenue and avoid bad detour around construction just northwest of Indianapolis. Turn west at junction of 15 and 33 and proceed via Lebanon.

No. 9—One mile of construction beginning at 4-miles south of Brazil. East detour fair. Construction between Jasonville and Clay City. Loose gravel north of Jasonville.

LIONS CLAW UP LONE TREE FIVE

Rushville Basket Heavers Take Lead
Early in Greensburg Game And Keep It

3 FOULS DISCONCERTING

McNamara Makes Three in Row, But
Lions Step Out Soon Afterwards
And Take Lead

The Rushville high school basketball team defeated Greensburg Friday night on the floor in that city by a ten point margin, 29 to 19, and after the first few minutes of play the locals took a lead, and were never headed, and only once or twice did Greensburg threaten to become dangerous.

In the curtain raiser the third team from the local high school downed the second team of Greensburg in a game featured by a low score of 8 to 6.

The Rushville team was greatly handicapped on the small floor and low ceiling at Greensburg, and played remarkably well under those handicaps. The Lone Tree city team fought hard at all times, and missed many shots at the basket, just as Rushville did.

Right on the first tip-off McNamara fouled, and Wahman missed the shot for Greensburg. McNamara repeated a foul and Morrison scored the first point, and it was not soon until the third foul was called on McNamara, and Wickens missed another attempt for Greensburg.

Soon the locals began to uncock their fast team work, and Hilligoss took the ball through for a basket, and when Strasburger fouled Snoddy, the Rushville player made good his two chances on the fouls. The Lions worked the ball around their goal again, and were stretching themselves in an attempt to reach it, when Walker batted it into the net, for two more points, giving Rushville 6 and Greensburg 1.

Hilligoss again dribbled through for a two point marker, and Greensburg called time. Morrison scored on Hilligoss' foul, that gave Greensburg 2 points, with Rushville at 8.

Hilligoss scored on a foul committed by Meek, and Snoddy went under the basket for a field goal, making the score 11 to 2, and with the locals going fast. Morrison fouled again and Hilligoss threw the basket, but the referee ruled that it did not count because he stepped over the line in tossing the goal.

Greensburg took a spurt when Wahman made good a foul and soon Wickens registered the first field goal for Greensburg, giving the home team 5, with Rushville leading at 11. Wickens missed a chance to score on Walker's foul, and Morrison tossed in a goal from near the center for Greensburg, that made the score 11 to 7.

Rushville substituted Newbold for Walker and Warth for McNamara at this point. Hilligoss threw a foul and soon Newbold tossed in a foul and with the score 13 to 7, Hilligoss found the basket twice, that gave Rushville 17 to Greensburg's 7, and before the gun went off, Morrison scored again from Greensburg, that made the first half end 17 to 9.

Right at the start of the second half Greensburg started a rally and in the first half minute Wickens and Wahman got the ball on the tip-offs for goals, that made the score 17 to 13. Snoddy then missed two chances on fouls, and Morrison for Greensburg missed a chance when Snoddy fouled him.

Snoddy again missed two fouls. Comella for Rushville dropped in his usual two point marker from the center of the field, and Newbold put Rushville in the front with a goal, making the score 21 to 13.

A field goal by Morrison and a foul by Wahman gave Greensburg three more points. Hilligoss scored from the field, and soon afterwards missed two chances on fouls. Rushville seemed to be out of luck on fouls during this half, and missed many an opportunity.

Wickens scored on Warth's foul and Wahman added two more points for Greensburg on a field goal, that again threatened to even up matters with Rushville, as the score was now 23 to 19.

Newbold for the Lions pulled the game out of the fire when he grabbed two field goals in rapid succession, boosting the count to 27, and with Greensburg behind at 19.

Hilligoss scored again from the field, and in the last two minutes of

HITTIN' 'EM AND MISSIN' 'EM

The Lions shook the one point jinx last night, and their stock has now gone up ten points.

It was a good game, with each team fighting hard, and had it been played on a larger floor, the Lions no doubt would have doubled the count.

Newcastle wishes they never saw Knightstown. The K-town aggregation walked all over the Trojans in the last half, and won 36 to 15.

And to think that we have to play that K-town bunch January 4, on the night before we play Columbus. We make a motion to shoot the schedule maker for putting two games in a row.

Congratulations Columbus. We sorta believe that we could beat Shelbyville, if we had a chance.

Lots of good games in the county tonight.

Tough lacks Colts. You got a chance coming to even up matters, and we'd begin to plan it right now.

Susie's band might as well staid home last night. They couldn't find room in the gym after they reached Greensburg. They marched down to the court house after the game and serenaded the tree on the court house tower. Police officer prevented them from bringing home a sprig.

The Lionesses met with tough luck also. Fairview outpointed them four points, 19 to 15, which isn't half bad.

Greenfield next. They're not so slow. Last night they defeated Charlottesville, 50 to 12, which looks like they can hit the basket.

Gangway For Milroy

Webb plays Milroy tonight at Milroy. It is the first game for Milroy, since playing Rushville, and they are about due to trim someone.

The next game then for Milroy will be with the Sir Walter Raleighs at Raleigh, and we sorta expect a real battle.

THEY'RE STEALIN' OUR PLUNDER

"Short Passes" is the name of the new column in the Shelbyville Republican, which has made its appearance. It is just as we expected, they are soliciting some of our business already. Listen to what they say:

The local fans who have been pestering "Hittin' 'em and Missin' 'em" over at Rushville, with Basketball communications may now send them to us. We will be glad to get them.

Connersville is away down in the hills. They played at Owensville last night, and tonight will tackle Central high school of Evansville.

How About Our Schedule?

That's steppin' out some Connersville. Next year, we would like to see our schedule makers line up with some of the teams in the big circle. Why not book games with Marion Kokomo, Muncie, Frankfort, Vincennes and the other big fellows: What if we do lose now and then, we will have the satisfaction of playing good company.

Even Podunk might want a game

Boosts Price Of Sports

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Dec. 8.—With the fingers of so many players, leagues and commissions in the world's series pie, the clubs staging the affairs are getting into the position where they furnish the plate and get back only the crumbs that are left on it after the feast.

The Giants and the Yankees claim that they had $80,000 left last September after the "gate" had been worked on Commissioner Landis, the National and American League executives and players of the Giants, Yankees, Reds, Indians, Pirates and Tigers.

It may provoke some sarcasm from the public to hear two big league ball clubs complain about profits for a week of baseball that came to only $80,000, but when it is considered that the receipts went beyond one million dollars, it will be realized that the method of whacking up the money may not be equitable.

The Giants say the club made more money for the use of the Polo Grounds for the Dempsey-Firpo fight than it earned by having one-half of the world's series on the same ground.

In 1922 the Giants and the Yankees did well if they broke even, as it was a five-game series and the entire receipts of the game in which Umpire Hildebrand became afraid of dark went to charity.

From several big league sources it is understood that a suggestion may be made at the winter meetings that the practice of allowing the second and third place clubs in each league to share in the world's series money be discontinued or that their shares be decreased.

John Heydler, president of the National League, says that he will

ORANGE TEAMS ARE VICTORS

Varsity Defeats Glenwood and Girls Whip Arlington

The Orange high school basketball team took a double header Friday night at Orange, when the varsity team defeated Glenwood 25 to 15, and the Orange girls defeated the Arlington girls 24 to 21.

Each game was well played, and especially the girls game. The girls displayed excellent passing and team work. The Orange team was composed of Frances Medd, Nellie Henry and Marjory May, forwards; Theresa Dawson, center; Mabel Bowen, Lucille Brown and Luree Lemons guards.

MANILLA DOWNS WALDRON WITH 3 POINTS TO SPARE

Manilla went over to Waldron last night and downed the high school team of that place by the score of 24 to 21, in a fast game. The Manilla second team was not as fortunate as the first team, and they lost their game to the Waldron second team 11 to 3.

with us, when we are down Vincennes way.

THESE BIRDS ARE CALLED SELMA

The Lions are not the only team that have worries in their own country. Up at Muncie there's a burg called Selma, and "Watching the Fouls", says this:

Returning a little closer home—watch Selma this year. The advice is given for the benefit of those who aren't eager for a repetition of the Ridgeville fiasco. The "Blue Birds" who were the sensation of last year's sectional tourney have a real quintet, with four regulars from last season in the lineup. Mooreland, winners of last year's sectional at Newcastle and conquerors of Shelbyville in the regional at Fort Wayne, had a tough job in defeating the Liberty Township tossers by a mere two-point margin on the Mooreland floor, some time ago.

BASKETBALL TONIGHT

night on the floor in Milroy, and each team is ready for the word to go. Milroy has had a rest of ten days and will put forth a big effort to win, while on the other hand, Webb will try to get back in the win column again, because of their recent defeats.

New Salem—Fairview

New Salem high school will have a double bill on the program tonight, when the varsity squad of the New Salem team plays the Fairview high school, and a curtain raiser will be played between the New Salem second team and the Homer first team. Two good games are anticipated.

Moscow—Newpoint

Moscow high school and Newpoint will meet in a basketball tilt tonight on the floor in Blue Ridge, and it is expected that the Moscow team will add another victory to their unbroken record for the season. Next Friday night they journey over to play at Manilla.

THREE GAMES PLAYED ON FAIRVIEW CARD

Three games were on the card last night at Fairview and all three contests were fast and exciting. The Fairview girls won from the Rushville girls 19 to 15. The Milton high school won from the Fairview high school team 18 to 15, and in the big game of the evening the Fairview Athletic club downed the Morristown independents, 66 to 26.

GROWTH REMOVED FROM KNEE

Havens Frazee son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Frazee and former high school basketball star, is recovering from the effects of an operation he underwent at the Sexton hospital several days ago for the removal of a growth on his left knee, which developed after he injured his knee while cranking a motor truck. The operation was performed after he returned home from the University of Illinois for Thanksgiving.

CONTINUE WINNING STREAK

Raleigh H. S. Tossers Trim Morristown Friday Night

Raleigh high school continued their winning streak of this week by defeating the Morristown high school team at Morristown last night, by the close count of 29 to 24. The game was fast and close at all angles, but the Rush county team proved to be the best basket shots.

The Raleigh team will now turn their attention to the practice work, in preparation for their next game, which will be with Milroy at Raleigh, on Friday night.

RUSHVILLE SECONDS LOSE AT CONNERSVILLE

The Rushville high school second team lost their first game of the season, when they journeyed over to Connersville last night, and dropped the game by 4 points, 23 to 19. The game was fast from the start, and the final outcome was in doubt until the gun went off at the end of the 40 minute period.

The Connersville team will play a return game with the locals here in the near future, and the Colts will be out for revenge.

She gave a very comprehensive review of the early Italian Painters; Mrs. Carl Behrer talked on "Fra Angelico" and "Fra Lippi"; Mrs. Vincent Young gave a talk on "The Realistic School"; Mrs. Harold Pearce on "Michael Angelo"; Mrs. C. H. Chadwick on "Raphael"; Miss Brenda Kinsinger on "Carreggio" and Mrs. Scott Hosier on "Titian." The next meeting will be Friday, December 21.

The Y. P. C. U. of the First United Presbyterian church held their monthly business meeting and social Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boren, 840 West Ninth street. The evening was spent with games, and those enjoying the event were Marie Dudgeon, Gladys Adams, Golda Jessup, Letta Stout, Ethel Chandler, Dorothy Whittaker, Roy Stout, William Stout, Virgil and Elmer Hileman, Archie Roam, Ora Wagoner, Joseph and Elvin Fowl, Lester Hardwick and Eva Boren.

Mrs. William Jackson of North Main street entertained with a prettily appointed six o'clock dinner party Friday evening. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Winslip, Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Conway, Mr. and Mrs. Austen Frazee, the Rev. and Mrs. L. E. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Casa and son Deryl, Mrs. Martha Grindle, Mr. and Mrs. George Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Parker, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Nipp and daughter Eloise. The evening was enjoyed with music and readings.

The Advance Literary Club enjoyed a lovely Christmas party Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John H. Frazee in North Harrison street. All the members of the club were present for the meeting and responded to the roll call with Bible quotations. Mrs. Fannie Amos told love stories of the Bible and Mrs. Martha Grindle discussed "Nativity." The Christmas tree decorated with the gifts was the main decoration for the home, and the gifts were distributed to each guest. The delicious refreshments served as the closing feature of the afternoon, were carried out in the Christmas colors of red and green.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Hester celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Friday afternoon from the hours of four to eight o'clock, at their home near Lexington. The home was beautifully decorated in the color scheme of yellow and white, chrysanthemums and ferns being used to carry out the predominating colors. The honored couple received one hundred guests during the hours, who aided them in making the day one to be remembered throughout their life. Many beautiful gifts were also received by Mr. and Mrs. Hester. A pleasing literary program was given, consisting of music, recitations and prayer by the Rev. E. L. Glover, of the Little Blue River Wesleyan Methodist church. Delicious refreshments were served, consisting of ice cream, cake and coffee.

The Young Ladies Mission Circle of the Main street Christian church enjoyed a splendid meeting Friday evening at the home of Miss Wanda Wyatt in North Main street. During the business meeting the Circle decided to hold a carnival December 17, in the basement of the church. The program opened with the scripture reading by Miss Wanda Wyatt followed by three discussions as follows: "Out Where the West Begins," Mrs. Nettie Glendenning; "The Redman," Mrs. Mary Thompson; and "The Highlanders," by Mrs. Paul Stewart. The program closed with the benediction. A delightful social hour was enjoyed at the close of the program, during which gifts were exchanged and delicious refreshments were served. The assisting hostesses were Miss Brenda Kinsinger, Mrs. Mary Thompson and Mrs. Paul Stewart. Twenty-four members were present for this meeting.

PARENT, TEACHERS BODY IS APPROVED

ville has such an organization. It helps to cultivate an acquaintance between the parents and the teachers which is necessary for the best interests of the school. The patrons need such an organization through which they may speak when occasions arise, and by means of which they may become acquainted with educational interests at large.

By E. G. McKIBBEN
(First United Presbyterian Church)
The parent-teachers association is a move in the right direction. The school shares with the home, some of its responsibility with reference to the teaching and the training of the children. This rather increases parental responsibility for a sympathetic and co-operative interest in school activities. Of those influences that determine character, it is said that 75 percent come from the home, 20 percent from the secondary schools, and 5 percent from the higher education. If we have taken proper care of the home influences, let us not neglect to do our part as regards the school. It is a fine thing for the teachers to invite a closer relationship with the home.

more inhabitants, under community chairmen. Community committees will be in touch with all citizens and organizations, to receive gifts to the Memorial fund and forward them to Association headquarters.

In order to insure upkeep of the Harding tomb and shrine for all time, a sufficient endowment will be settled on them out of the Memorial fund, according to plans of the board of trustees of the Association, of which all members of the cabinet are members. Records, mementos and books of the late president will be placed in a fireproof structure to be built adjacent to the home shrine. The trustees are anxious that the neglect and lack of funds which is menacing some of America's shrines shall never overtake the Harding Memorial.

It is the hope of the Harding Memorial Association that everyone who loved Mr. Harding will have an opportunity to contribute. School children's pennies and nickels will be as significant as millionaire's checks in the roster of givers.

Collection of the names of all school children donors in a permanent record for the Marion Shrine is a part of the Memorial plan. Teachers are asked to list children's signatures plainly on substantial paper so that they may be bound and preserved as the tribute of the boys and girls. To each school room in which every pupil has contributed, an engraved certificate of associate membership in the Harding Memorial Association will be issued.

A similar enlarged certificate will be presented to adult organizations which contribute one dollar for each active member to the fund. Individual contributors of one dollar or more will also receive a certificate signifying associate membership in the Association.

HOMER SCHOOL

(Beulah Willis, editor)

Mr. Arend's English class is just now very interested in Ivanhoe, Rowena and Rebecca. We are also watching with keen eyes the plight into which Isaac, the Jew gets when he has to part with his "duckets". We have read fifteen chapters in "Ivanhoe".

The Freshman Latin class had a verb drill Wednesday. They were required to list and give the principal parts of about fifty verbs. Latin papers returned from Tuesday's work, and all made good grades.

Mr. Arend handed back our book reports Wednesday. He seemed well pleased with them.

The Misses LaNelle Krammes and Katherine Parkes visited school Wednesday.

A worth while lecture will be given by the Rev. Mr. Haley of Manilla on, "The Sunnyside of Life" Tuesday night, December 18 at 7:30 o'clock. It will be given for the benefit of the Homer school. Admission 25 and 15 cents. Bring your friends. You are cordially invited to come out and enjoy meeting your friends and have a good laugh to drive away the cares of life.

Mr. Gard, secretary of the "No Tobacco" league, gave us an interesting talk on the tobacco habit Tuesday morning. He illustrated the effect of cigarettes on the different organs of the body. His talk was much appreciated by the general assembly of the school.

MANILLA SECONDS WIN

The Homer basketball team was defeated by the Manilla seconds Wednesday night, November 28. The first half ended 8 to 1 in favor of Manilla but in the last half the Homer boys did some fine playing and the game ended 10 to 9 in Manilla's favor. The line-up and summary:

Manilla	Homer
Brown	F. Kemp
Webster	F. Johnston
Wilkes	C. Inlow
Haley	G. Krammes
Weingarth	G. Meid

Field goals, Kemp, Johnston, Inlow, Weingarth. Foul goals, Kemp, Wilkes, Brown. Substitutions, Fletcher for Krammes, Frow for Johnston, Phares for Webster, Wissing for Brown.

Homer vs New Salem Saturday at 7 p. m. Rah, Rah, Rah, the boys got some good practice Wednesday night at Manilla.

The Sophomore algebra class is doing some good work in homogeneous equation and equivalent system. Santa Claus is peeping around the corner as we have heard that a small program is to be put on by the lower grades.

Mrs. Joy Baldwin is a graduate of the state normal. She has taught 7 years, and was teaching in Indiana University in the past year. She has taught in St. Augustine Florida two years. She is now teaching in this school, filling out a vacancy caused by the resignation of a teacher.

Our flag pole arrived Wednesday. We will soon have "Old Glory" floating before us.

CARTHAGE SCHOOL

(Babette Henley, editor)

C. H. S. came home with a hard fought victory after playing Raleigh last Wednesday night. Both teams had lost only one game previously, and the expectation of a closely contested game came true, regardless of the final ten point margin. The score zig-zagged through out the entire first half, and until the last ten minutes of play. The half ended 21 to 20 in favor of Carthage and the final score was 45 to 35. The clean playing was attributed to Coach

William Black, a former student and basketball star of C. H. S., re-entered school Monday after serving a year in the Navy. "Lucky" expects to graduate this year and will play on the basketball team the second semester.

Monthly grades were issued Wednesday and the honor roll was posted as follows:

Babette Henley 4

ATTENDANCE AVERAGES

Mr. Lockwood submits the following report of the average for attendance during the month of November:

Senior high school 98.1
Junior high school 97.74
Grades 97.27

The sixth grade ranked the highest with percentage of attendance of 98.32.

The Carthage teachers will attend the meeting of the Sixth District Teachers' association at Richmond today.

During the past three months of school eighteen Senior high school and 40 Junior high school pupils have been neither absent nor tardy.

Work of the freshman art class will be on sale at the high school art bazaar December 8, at Simm's store. The articles will include decorated shoe-trees, sanitas sets, trays, salt and pepper shakers and framed mottoes.

MOSCOW SCHOOL

SENIOR CLASS

Corn shucking being about over, all of the Senior boys are back in school.

The Seniors have received their rings from John E. Sigler, Shelbyville jeweler, and are very proud of them.

Another bunch of candy has been bought from the Indianapolis firm. It sells very fast. Even the teachers bought some to help pay for some things needed at the school house.

Some of the Seniors are expecting to go to the party on Tuesday night.

JUNIOR CLASS

Every body is back in school after the Thanksgiving holiday, each wearing a contented, well fed look. The short vacation did us all good.

Merle Alexander is back in school since the vacation. We are pleased to have him with us again.

There has been some talk concerning a community house. An unofficial vote is being taken. All returns not being in, no definite decision has been made.

FRESHMAN NEWS

The Freshmen have found themselves very busy this week as we are going to give a party Thursday night. We're hoping it will be a success.

We have finished "Treasure Island" in English, and are going to take up Dickens' "Christmas Carol."

In biology we are studying plant life. In algebra we are factoring and finding square roots.

In Latin, verbs and nouns are coming to our mind better, but one has to look over the Freshmen as it is their first year in high school.

SOPHOMORE NEWS

Alice Parker, a Sophomore, was delightedly surprised when several of the high school students gave a fare-well party at her home last Thursday night. Owing to the bad weather, just a few were present. Refreshments were served later in the evening. Everyone enjoyed the evening, even though they had eaten a Thanksgiving dinner.

We are getting to smoother ground in algebra and all are trying to get 100 percent grades this month.

We expect a test in English Thursday. We sincerely hope it will not be too difficult, but suppose it won't be.

We saw our grades this month, and with the exception of a few, all proved to be rather fair. We hope they will continue the same the rest of the term.

GLENWOOD SCHOOL

The next regular meeting of the Parent-Teachers' club will be Tuesday December 11. An interesting program is being prepared—a three reel educational film being a feature of the program. Everybody is invited.

The scoring of corn is still a feature of the work in agriculture. Later, testing this corn by the ragdoll method will be taken up. Each boy has made a rack on which to keep his selected corn.

The girls in the domestic science class have been divided into two sections. This week one section prepared and served lunch to the other. Next week the favor will be returned.

Glenwood and Orange met last night at Orange. Coach Hinchman has started a little physical training in place of the regular basketball practice of which we are deprived. Let's go Glenwood, a team may be down, but she's never out.

The following story was written by Janet Martin, a pupil of the second grade, in Glenwood school:

THE TURKEYS NEST

Once upon a time a turkey went out to make a nest. It took a long time to find a place. When she found the right place, she said: "They may go to the east and they may go to the west,

But they'll never be able to find my nest."

She was so proud she went all the way home with her head high in the air.

The Gray Goose guessed that the nest was near the goose pond. The White Duck agreed. The Brown Hen guessed the hay stack. Though they did their very best they could not guess where she'd made her nest.

Cousin Ben, brother Fred, little Ben, mother and father all tried to find the turkey's nest.

And though they did their very best they could not find that turkey's nest. One morning a little later, into the farm yard came the turkey and following her came twelve little turkeys.

She said "I hatched them all in my nest down in the corner of the old rail fence"

"I tell you what, I did my best, when I found that place to make my nest!"

NEW SALEM

Rush Wilson, a Freshman has been absent from school for several weeks on account of sickness in the family.

Moody Bever, a Sophomore, has quit school on account of sickness.

Rev. W. R. Cady, pastor of the Little Flatrock church, addressed the school here on the Wednesday before Thanksgiving with a Thanksgiving message.

Rev. Pickett, pastor of the M. E. church at New Salem, addressed the high school here Monday morning.

The basketball boys first team will play Fairview Saturday night here, and the second team will play the Homer team. Everyone is urged to come.

On Friday night, December 14, the basketball boys will play the Center boys. The girls team will play the Center girls at this time also. Both games will be here at the school building.

THE OLD HOME TOWN By Stanley

Superintendent Farthing visited the high school here Wednesday afternoon.

The domestic science girls of the high school have begun to serve noon lunch.

Miss Ona Owens visited her parents at Brownsville during the Thanksgiving vacation. Miss Owens is the primary teacher.

Next Tuesday night will be our Parent-Teacher's meeting. Superintendent Farthing, Miss Sparks and Mr. Cooper are on the program. There will also be special music and entertainment by pupils.

Honor roll for the month, is as follows: (Those with no grade below B.)

GINGS SCHOOL

(RUTH BILLINGS, editor)

The high school team of G. H. S. and also the 7th and 8th grade team played Fairview H. S. and grade team November 28. The Gings grade team was victorious over the Fairview grade team by the score of 30 to 2. Both teams put up a good fight and our grade team seems to be improving. The Gings H. S. team lost to Fairview 53 to 12, but the game was a hard fought battle from the beginning to end. The H. S. line-up and summary was:

Ging	Fairview
Eckart	F. Bunyard
Custer	F. McClure
Cortner	C. Hackleman
Gordon	G. Banks
Felts	G. Gwinnup

RICHMOND CONFERENCE

Those attending the Fourth Annual Conference for Older Boys at Richmond, during November 30, December 1 and 2, were Joseph Custer, Adrian Eckart, Robert Meyers and Clyde Gordon from this school, with Mr. Sipe, their chaperone. The boys were very much pleased and they gained a great deal of knowledge from the conference. They returned home Sunday evening and each gave an account of it at the evening services at the local church.

The domestic science girls have just finished some very attractive posters, each representing a diet slogan and one manner slogan. The slogans used were (1) Don't stuff; (2) Eat Vitamines and Grow; (3) Fresh Fruit and Green Vegetables for Health; (4) Eat Regularly; Don't piece 'between Meals; (5) Have You Had Your Pint of Milk Today?; (6) Manners Count.

CHRISTMAS

In preparation for Christmas, the music classes are working on Xmas cantatas and the one the high school is working on now is "There are Shepherds." Although art lessons are being given up to music, for completing the cantatas before Christmas, much is hoped to be gained.

CENTER SCHOOL

The following special reports in the history class were given this week: The Newburg address by Fern Stewart; the Ordinance of 1787 by Ruby Stewart; and the Constitutional convention, by Pervia Zimmerman.

For opening exercises Monday morning, Mr. Landrus gave a very interesting report of the Indiana-Purdue football game, which he saw last Saturday.

The Home Economics class served dinner to the teachers Wednesday.

School was dismissed Thursday and Friday for Thanksgiving last week.

ARLINGTON

Arlington high school, with a crippled line-up, defeated Webb H. S. last Friday evening. The game was very exciting as the final score was 23-22, in an overtime period. Webb was leading 10-8 in the first half, came back in the second with a 19-8 lead. Victory seemed certain for Webb. With the score 22-11 and only five and a half minutes to play, Webb called time out. Then Arlington began to play. Stanley, floor guard, dropped a basket from center. Price got a long one from deep center, and Summan followed with one under the basket. Thus the score was brought to 22-20 and only fifteen seconds left to play. "Red" Riddle dropped one in from the side as the gun sounded, making the score 22-22. Arlington scored the winning point in the overtime period.

The attendance for this last month was somewhat lower than usual. There has been a great deal of illness caused by diphtheria and colds, and several of the boys have stayed out to shuck corn. Thus our average is only 95.3%.

There has been a decided improvement in the grades throughout the school system as shown by the increased number of A's and the smaller number of F's. Those leading the classes are as follows:

Pearle Macy	Senior
Edwin Stark	Junior
Norma Wall	Sophomore
Florence Houston	Freshman
Sylvia McDaniel	Eighth Grade

The teachers of Posey Township will attend the 6th congressional District teachers convention at Richmond, Saturday, December 8.

Red Cross Christmas Seals are now on sale at the school building. This is to remind you that Christmas is near and you had better get some seals.

Mr. Wagoner stopped in for a few minutes Friday. We were all disappointed that he did not stay longer.

THE RALEIGH SCHOOL

(Suess Wagner, Editor)

Sir Walter Raleigh's Tigers won another victory Thursday, Dec. 6, when they preyed on the Carthagean Blue Birds. The Tigers came on the floor with blood in their eyes, having lost their last game to the Blue Birds, and left the floor with the big end of a 24 to 25 score. The game was fast and the clever passing of each team was the feature of the game. The Tigers started scoring with a field goal, after which the scoring was slow on account of the almost impenetrable defense of each team. The margin was close at all time and with the score constantly changing from the favor of one team to the other, no dope could be worked out. The Tigers constantly changed their tactics and by some fast floor work and accurate shooting forced the Blue Birds to wither. Most of the scoring was done at close range by both teams and Newkirk, the raging Tiger floor guard, netted five points in two minutes. Quite a feat we'll say. All the Tigers were raging and, just noticing a note in "Hittin' 'em" written by the Blue Birds predicting a twenty point victory, will say that the Blue Birds are out of season now and will probably migrate South. It will probably be too cold for them to winter in the North as they have had their pinfeathers picked by the Tigers.

The Tigers won still another victory last night when they defeated the strong Morristown team by the score of 29 to 24. It was a fast game and the Tigers fought with the winning spirit.

The Tigers will next show their teeth to Milroy's netters next Friday night.

OTHER NOTES

The entire high school has put its shoulders to the wheel and is determined to buy a new front curtain for the stage. They intend to do this by soliciting subscribers to "The Country Gentleman" for the Curtis Publishing Company. Half the subscription rate is retained by the high school.

The Junior class is very industrious and now has quite a bank account acquired by selling candy.

MARKETING TO GET ATTENTION

Will Be One of Principal Subjects
Discussed At Annual Rush County
Farm Bureau Association

IN RUSHVILLE NEXT TUESDAY

Most of Afternoon Will be Devoted to Round Table—Will be Open
To All Farmers

One of the special things to be taken up at the annual meeting of the Rush County Farm Bureau, at the Graham Annex auditorium in Rushville next Tuesday, will be further steps in perfecting cooperative stock marketing. This is one of the main objectives of the Farm Bureau and much effort will be centered on it during the forthcoming year.

With Rush county farmers back from the annual convention of the Indiana Farm Bureau Federation today, attention turned to the county meeting. The state sessions closed with a banquet Friday night at the Lincoln hotel in Indianapolis.

Rush county farmers are proud of the progress that has been made along co-operative marketing lines this year and believe that the time is now ripe for further development, for this reason, some time at the county convention will be devoted to a discussion of the subject.

Most of the afternoon session will be given over to a round table discussion of organization problems and members will be given a chance to express their wishes regarding organization plans and the progress that has been made.

Neither the business meeting nor the discussions will be confined to the delegate body, but will be open to any farmers who may wish to attend. There will be between 100 and 125 delegates, each township being entitled to one delegate for every ten members or fraction thereof.

There will be no special address at the annual meeting this year, but the time will be devoted to hearing the reports of officers, the election of officers and the informal discussion of farm problems.

No definite returns were available today regarding the results of the annual membership campaign in Rush county, although the canvassing teams were supposed to report by today. All reports available, however, indicate that this year's membership will be exceeded.

BANKS ALSO TO CASH WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

This Applies to All Except Registered Stamps, Which Must be
Cashed Where Bought

MONEY ORDER WINDOW HOURS

Banks will cash War Savings Stamps of 1919 issue, the same as they did those of the 1918 issue, it was announced at the postoffice today, to correct any wrong impression that may have been received following the announcement Thursday urging holders of the stamps to present them for payment at once, because the postoffice force will be too busy during the Christmas rush to take care of this business.

This does not apply to registered War Saving Stamps, however, as they have to be cashed at the postoffice where they were purchased. Persons presenting their War Stamps, which fall due January 1, for payment now, will receive their checks soon after the first of the year, it is assured. The Rushville postoffice also has the new issue of War Savings Certificates, for which War Stamps may be exchanged.

It was also announced at the postoffice today that beginning Monday, Dec. 10, the money order window at the postoffice will be open from 8:00 a. m. to 6:00 p. m., each day of the week except Saturday, when it will remain open until 7 p. m. The present hours are 7:00 a. m. to 7:00 p. m., the same as the stamp window, but the postoffice force is busy the first hour in the morning with the mail, and there is little demand for money orders during that hour, it is stated.

2-DAY COMMUNITY MEETING

Manilla Plans Program For Farmers
December 13 And 14

A two day community meeting, sponsored by the business men of Manilla will be held next week, December 13 and 14 at the auditorium in Manilla, during which time the matters of interest to the farmers will be taken up and special speakers will be engaged. The program is nearing completion and will be announced early next week.

The headline speaker will be Walter B. Remley of the International Harvester company of Chicago, and Elmer Hutchinson of Arlington will have a place on the program, and will speak on "Winter Wheat Flour," representing the National Grain Dealers association.

PARENT, TEACHERS BODY IS APPROVED

Rushville Ministers Commend Movement to Join Home And School in Organization

SCHOOL SURVEY TUESDAY

First Effort of New Association Will be Inspection of Rushville Buildings

Unstinted approval of the Rushville Parent-Teachers association, that has lately been formed, is voiced by pastors of Rushville churches in brief statements issued today at the behest of the officers of the association. All point to the good results that are certain to come from an organization that brings teachers and parents closer together.

Close to 150 patrons of the schools have signified their willingness to join the association. The first meeting of the association had been planned for next Wednesday evening, with Benjamin J. Burris, state superintendent of public instruction, as the speaker, but he was unable to come, and arrangements have now been made for a school survey on Tuesday.

The survey will start at the Havens school, where patrons are asked to meet at one o'clock. Following an inspection of this building, they will go to the Jackson school and then to the Graham high school and the Graham Annex. Plenty of automobiles will be provided. At the high school assembly room, at four o'clock, the afternoon's inspection trip will be discussed from the viewpoint of the school teachers, the school board, and the parents, and school children will describe the playground apparatus at their respective buildings. Birney D. Farthing, county superintendent of schools, will speak on "Classification of Elementary Schools."

Neither the Rev. L. E. Brown, pastor of the Main Street Christian church, or the Rev. W. H. Hargett, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, issued any prepared statement on their attitude in regard to the parent-teacher organization, but both expressed full approval of the idea.

The Rev. Mr. Hargett said that he had seen such associations function with great good for the schools and the parents as well, in other cities where he had held pastorates. The Rev. Brown declared that any agency which would bring the teachers and school patrons in closer touch with one another was to be commended.

Statements by other ministers are as follows:

By R. W. SAGE
(Pastor First Baptist Church)
Too much can not be said in favor of a parent-teacher's association. It is imperative that the two most potent forces in a child's life, the home and the school, should have the fullest understanding, sympathy and co-operation. This can only occur when, by frank and kindly discussion, they each come to understand their common problems and appreciate their common opportunities.

By GIBSON WILSON
(Pastor 1st Presbyterian Church)
My acquaintance with the Parent-Teacher Association has been such that I am led to give the work my hearty support. I am glad that Rush-

INDIANS INCREASING SAYS ANNUAL REPORT

Redmen Show Gain in Population
Since 1913 And Today There are
344,303 In U. S.

ARE FINANCIALLY PROSPEROUS

Washington, Dec. 8—Contrary to the universal belief that the American Indian is gradually dying off, the annual report of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs today revealed that the Redmen are steadily increasing.

"Since 1913," the report said, "the Indian population has increased more than 13,000, until today they number 344,303."

The report also showed the Indians to be in a prosperous financial condition, with individual and tribal property valued at $1,010,870,519, a gain of $283,124,122 over last year. Individual property alone was set at $535,956,774, an increase of $6,275,548 in one year.

In the past year, allotments of land embracing 1,904,000 acres, principally on reservations in Montana, South Dakota, Arizona and California were made to 3,923 Indians, the report stated.

The Indians also received more than $50,000,000 for rental of lands, timber taken from the Minnesota National Forest, oil and gas leases and payment of logging and milling operations on their land, the report said.

SEES TAX REDUCTIONS AS AID TO PROSPERITY

to Prosperity Can be Continued
By Lower Taxes

SAYS BUSINESS IS OVERTAXED

Washington, Dec. 8—Business and industrial prosperity is returning to the United States this year after two lean years of post-war depression and can be continued through tax reductions, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, told congress in his annual report Friday.

The burden of high and "unsound" taxes now imposed upon American business, which "would have been thought fantastic and impossible of payment" before the war, constitutes a "most insidious menace to continued prosperity," he declared. He put the future of American economic life squarely up to congress.

"The opportunity is presented to congress," he said, "to make the tax structure of the United States conform more closely to normal conditions and to remove the inequalities in that structure which directly injure our prosperity and cause strain upon our economic fabric."

As a result of amazing recuperation from the depression of 1921 and 1922, Mellon declared, business today "generally presents the appearance of being in a sound economic condition."

MAIL ROBBERS CONVICTED

St. Louis Holdup

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 8.—A jury in federal court today found Morris Rudensky, Joe Koumain, Ray Madison and Byron Shelton, all of St. Louis, guilty of conspiracy of the sensational mail holdup at the Chicago and Alton depot in this city last April. Claude Smith, also of St. Louis, was found not guilty and discharged.

Each of the four men was sentenced to serve twenty-five years in the federal penitentiary at Ft. Leavenworth.

THREE COUNTIES TO JOIN IN CELEBRATION

Arrangements Made to Celebrate
Election of 3 Highest Officers in
Grand Encampment

TO BE HELD HERE JANUARY 24

Arrangements were made Friday night for a tri-county celebration here on January 24 to celebrate the election of the three highest officers in the Grand Encampment of Odd Fellows from Rush, Henry and Fayette counties. The officers to be honored are Frank McIlwaine of this city, grand patriarch; Jos. V. Painter of Middletown, grand high priest; and Earl Lines of Connersville, grand senior warden.

A parade will be held, if the weather permits, and Odd Fellows bands from the three counties will participate. The patriarch and golden rule degree teams will be given in the afternoon by the Knightstown and Connersville degree teams and the royal purple degree will be put off at night by the Arlington staff. Connersville has a degree team of seven men, which is a novelty, being the only one in the world in the higher branch of the order. Arrangements will be made with some organization to serve supper that evening. Grand officers will be present and will speak following the degree work in the evening. There will be candidates from all three counties.

Two candidates were given work in the royal purple degree Friday evening, which was the first work by Bernice encampment this fall. County lodges and Knightstown and Connersville were represented. Oysters were served after the work.

STELLA HILLIGOSS DENIED A DIVORCE

Judge Sparks Rules on Evidence
Heard Last Saturday—Refuses
To Appoint Receiver

ALLENTROP DIVORCE ACTION

A few court matters were taken up this morning, in which evidence in the suit of William Richter, et al., against the Crescent Finance Company, et al., was heard and one of the plaintiffs, Willie B. Sullivan, was granted judgment for the amount of $471.33 on a note.

Judge Sparks this morning ruled on the evidence of the divorce suit of Stella M. Hilligoss against Claude Hilligoss, which was heard last Saturday, and the court refused the plaintiff a divorce.

In the divorce complaint of Eva Allentrop against Ira Allentrop, the plaintiff recently filed a motion for a receiver for the defendant, and this morning Judge Sparks refused the motion for the appointment of a receiver.

In the complaint of William A. Hughes against Richard Harke, a complaint for services, which has been on record for more than two years, the plaintiff filed a third paragraph, asking for $3,500 judgment.

PLAN TRIBUTE TO LATE PRESIDENT

Nationwide Observance Will Be Held
During Harding Memorial Week,
Beginning Tomorrow

AN EIGHT DAY PERIOD

President Coolidge Will Speak
Through Radio From White House
Monday Evening

County Is Organized

Rush county has been organized for the Harding Memorial Week with the appointment of bankers through the county as community chairmen, by Will O. Feudner, county chairman. They have been asked to accept contributions and have been provided with literature explaining the movement.

Washington, Dec. 8—On land and sea and through the air, tribute to Warren G. Harding, twenty-ninth President of the United States, will be paid during Harding Memorial Week which begins tomorrow and ends December 16. In every state of the Union, U. S. Territories and island possessions, an eight day period of commemoration will be observed. From the White House, where President Coolidge will speak over the radio Monday evening, in appreciation of his late Chief, to remote country school houses where exercises will be held some time during the week, the name of Harding will be eulogized. Ships of the U. S. Navy, and merchant vessels at sea will hold memorial ceremonies, according to advices received by the Harding Memorial Association here.

In churches, from coast to coast, memorial services will be held tomorrow. Mr. Harding was the staunch friend of all creeds and tribute to his practical religion will be widespread.

President Coolidge's memorial message, delivered from the White House study, will be the first radio broadcast by a President. It is expected that through powerful amplifying apparatus everyone in the land with access to radio equipment will be able to hear his words of appreciation of Warren G. Harding.

During the week social, civic, religious and fraternal organizations of every community will hold meetings in honor of the late President. At the meetings plans of the Harding Memorial Association to provide a permanent Harding tomb, preserve the Harding home at Marion as a shrine, and endow a Harding Chair of Diplomacy and Functions of Government in his name, will be explained.

Organizations which will hold Harding Memorial meetings wherever they have a membership are the Rotary, Kiwanis, Lions, Civilian and Optimist Clubs, Chambers of Commerce in every city, trade unions, Granges and Boards of Trade will devote all or part of a meeting next week to similar programs. Women's clubs, patriotic societies, Boy Scout and Girl Scout organizations have indicated that they will pay tribute during the week.

In grammar schools and University students will hold Harding Memorial exercises. Instructors will read sketches of his life, and tributes to his character and achievements.

At Army and Marine Corps posts, aboard ships of the Navy, and at stations of the Coast Guard and Coast and Geodetic Survey, brief ceremonies will be held and members of the services given an opportunity to give to the Memorial Fund. It is believed that a total of 100,000 uniformed men will contribute to the Memorial.

The Harding Memorial Association, of which President Coolidge is honorary head, and Andrew W. Mellon, secretary of the Treasury, active treasurer, expects to raise $3,000,000 in associate memberships, to finance the three-fold Memorial project.

At the request of President Coolidge governors of the states and territories have appointed state chairmen of Harding Memorial committees. These chairmen in turn, have chosen county chairmen. County chairmen have perfected organizations in communities of 1,000 or Lake Charles, La.—"I don't know what we would have done had we not had Black-Draught. It sure is one of the best medicines made, and am sure the best liver medicine," said Mr. Henry Garrett, of this city.

"My whole family use it," continued Mr. Garrett. "My wife says she believes she kept off the 'flu' by taking doses of Black-Draught regularly."

"I, myself, use Black-Draught for indigestion, and it is fine."

"We used pills and tablets and other laxatives, but they never seemed to do us good, but the Black-Draught sure has, and it has come to our house to stay. We give it to our daughter for headache and torpid liver."

"I am glad to recommend anything that has been the help to my family that Black-Draught has."

"My present health is good. Have two boxes of Black-Draught in the house now."

"Wildcat Jordan" at Mystic

CONDITION OF STATE ROADS IS OUTLINED IN HIGHWAY BULLETIN

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 8.—Failure of two contractors to complete paving projects on State Road No. 1 (Range Line) between Carmel and 9-miles south of Kokomo, will result in three open stretches of six miles total to go through this winter, it was announced today by John D. Williams, state highway director, in the commission's weekly traffic bulletin.

However, these gaps will not continue detours now in force, for the commission has instructed the maintenance department to maintain these stretches as a gravel road. Temporary surfacing work will start immediately, and it is believed that present detours can be removed by January 1. Cost of maintaining these sections, located at the edge of Westfield, and 7 and 12-miles north of Westfield respectively, will be deducted from money due the contractors for the completed pavement which should have been opened to traffic December 1 this year.

Mr. Williams pointed out that such delays will likely not occur in next year's paving program penalties against contractors failing to complete a project on specified time, are more severe. New specifications recently adopted by the commission has the following to say on this subject:

"For each working day that any work shall remain uncompleted, after the time specified in the proposal and contract and allowed by the director for the completion of the work provided for in the plans, specifications and contract, the contractor shall be liable to the commission for all costs incurred for engineering and inspection, temporary surfacing, temporary structures, maintenance of that portion of the road uncompleted, maintenance of detours by the commission and all other expenses incurred by the commission, by reason of the contractor's failure to complete the work within the time specified in the proposal and contract."

Mr. Williams asks that heavy loads not use new grade 6-miles east of Crawfordsville on No. 33, for two or three weeks but take detour to north. No objection is made to light loads using grade. That section between a point one and a half miles east of Muncie to Selma which has been closed for several weeks account of construction, will be opened to traffic, December 10. The bulletin further points out that traffic on No. 3 (National Road) should drive on north side for three weeks because of new tracks being laid at this crossing by the T. H. L. & E. traction company.

Road conditions for the week of December 9-15 are set forth in the bulletin as follows:

No. 1—Construction from Carmel to 9-miles south of Kokomo with local traffic using portions of new pavement. SATURDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1923

CHOOSE YE:—Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.—Romans 12: 9.

Business Prospects

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon says that tax reductions which he has recommended to congress, with the approval of President Coolidge, will serve as an aid to business which, during the past year, has begun to stagger out from under a two-year post-war depression. Other business leaders of wide foresight agree with the money wizard of the cabinet.

There are those who are predicting that the new year will come in with a slight trade depression, but will go out with a trade revival. Business, however, refuses to follow any very fixed rules and generally goes its own sweet way.

One element that the statisticians and forecasters of future trade overlook is the condition of the farmer. Few of them realize that his business is basic; that there is ten times more invested in the farming business than there is in the railroads; that the farmer deposits fifty-two per cent of the money that is carried to the bank, but draws out a very small per cent of it; that if prosperity does not come to him in larger measure than it has this year, other business is going to feel the effects of the agriculture depression, because he is one of the really big consumers of manufactured products.

William Wrigley, chewing gum king, predicts that all business will show more profit in 1924 than it has this year. Philip D. Block, president of the Inland Steel company of Chicago, shares this belief with Mr. Wrigley. Col. Leonard Ayres, war statistician of the United States government, vice-president of the Cleveland Trust company and recognized seer among business prophets of the world, believes that business conditions will result in a buyers' market during most of 1924.

He predicts that gradual slowing down of production and adjustment have been in progress since last spring and will probably continue until early next year, which will result in narrow profit margins and increased efficiency on the part of managers.

All of this is very much desired, but nothing sounds quite so promising as the prediction of O. E. Bradfute, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, to the effect that the cash income of farmers in the crop year ending June 30, 1924, will probably be $500,000,000 more than the preceding year and almost $2,000,000,000 more than during the low of 1921-1922. The increase means actual cash income, he says.

This is all very optimistic and shows the trend is in the right direction because the farmer must be making a profit so that he will be able to buy. He also must continue in his efforts, through organization, to lessen the spread between the price of farm products when they leave the farm and the price the ultimate consumer pays for them.

A Harding Memorial

A nation which made such a display of sympathy and felt so keenly the loss of its great human leader, is now given a chance, through the Harding Memorial association, to put its gratitude to a practical application in the observance of Harding Memorial week.

People who feel that President Harding's short span in the white house, which resulted in so much good for the whole country, should be recognized with a fitting memorial, have an opportunity to give funds for the memorial, in whatever amount the donor wants to give, and they will be forwarded to the proper authorities.

School children, who were among Mr. Harding's most enthusiastic admirers, also will be permitted to share in the giving, and their signatures, which teachers are asked to get, will be bound for permanent placement in the Harding Shrine at Marion.

It is fitting that the boys and girls should have a part in this national memorial because they loved the president for his simplicity and his love of the outdoors that he shared in common with them. His death was the first contact with national calamity for many of them. It made an impression that they will retain through life.

Current Comment*Bad Faith in Tax Policies

(Chicago Tribune)

Political tactics, practiced chiefly by the radical element in the farm bloc, threaten to murder the Mellon program of tax reduction in its infancy. The insistence of such radicals as La Follette, Brookhart, and Magnus Johnson upon restoration of the excess profits tax and an increase of surtaxes is nothing but obstruction.

The effort is to prevent a constructive Republican effort at tax reduction by combining Democratic and radical votes for tax increases, which President Coolidge would veto. In that way, the tacticians hold, the country would not be depressed by the suggested radical tax increases, but the Republican administration would be weakened. In view of such a threatened coup, some wise politicians believe, it would be better, to avoid any effort at tax revision.

The radical members of the farm bloc are thus endangering constructive legislation. They know that they cannot obtain restoration of the damaging and unproductive excess profits tax, or any increase in surtaxes, which are already so high that they are driving more and more money out of productive business into tax exempt securities. But they make an issue of that to corner and discredit the administration. And at the same time they complain of the tax burden upon the farmer and others of small incomes. In that attitude they are either crooked or blindly ignorant.

Any farmer who is not making a comfortable income, above all expenses, does not pay one cent of federal income tax. Not a farmer who has had a mortgage foreclosed and not one who has sold his crops without a profit will pay one cent of federal income taxes for the year. Their representatives or senators in congress who are arguing for reduction of the farmer's income tax by increasing surtaxes and restoring excess profits taxes are thus proving their hypocrisy. The only tax burden which the needy farmer carries is his local and state tax. That, true, is heavy. But the federal government has no power to lighten it. If the radical farm bloc were able to put through its program it would increase that burden by stimulating sales of tax exempt public improvement securities for which the farmer would be forced to pay taxes.

The tax radicals are acting in the most flagrant bad faith.

The Hodge-Podge

By a Paragrapher with a Soul

Strange how men fall off the band wagon when a fad loses its popularity.

It's one thing to set an example and another to have it followed.

The British novelist who recently asserted that Americans were only half educated, probably referred to the half that has been buying fake oil stock.

Love may be blind, but it often has a way of picking out the fellow with the bank roll.

The best way to become popular is to do something to warrant popularity.

The fellow who has to bring up the rear all through life may find some satisfaction in the fact that he will occupy the center of the stage at his own funeral.

The strenuous gait people travel nowadays is said to be hard on the heart, but it is even harder on the pocketbook.

The recent return of a local party of hunters composed of Claude Cambern, J. D. Case, Frank Lawrence, O. M. Dale and Loren Martin from Arkansas, has turned discussion this week, wherever Rushville men foregather, to the gentle art of hunting. Frank Wilson used to have a great hunger for the wild game trails, and he tells many stories of experiences while on hunts. One of them, when a party of Rushville men, including Mr. Wilson, Mr. Cambern, Charlie Selby (now dead) an Anderson township man named Harcourt and others, was down along the Rio Grande, Del Norte river, which follows the border between Texas and Mexico, was full of rich experiences, according to the way Mr. Wilson relates them now.

The Rush county hunters hired as a guide, after they got down there, a taxidermist of some local repute, who was quite a practical joker. One day while the amateur hunters were out in quest of game, the guide killed a large wild turkey, skinned it and stretched its hide, feathers and all with the head still in place, over some weeds and underbrush, so that it looked to one approaching like a bird.

As the local men came back to camp, weary and footsore without any game, they espied this turkey looking them straight in the eye. All of them had their guns back in their cases, except Mr. Selby. While the others were wildly tearing their cases off their guns, so as to get a shot, Mr. Selby took a couple of hops forward and let old Mr. Turkey have both barrels. But he never batted an eye. Then they began to "smell a mouse" and the guide "gave them the laugh."

The wild game was plentiful then, which is in strong contrast to present conditions, according to the Rushville party just back from Arkansas. The only difficulty, in those days, according to Mr. Wilson, was being able to get close enough to the birds to get a shot.

They had a scheme that beats a duck decoy. Two tame horses were pressed into service to shield the hunters' approach. The horses were always interested in eating grass and as they nibbled at the tender blades of grass, the hunters would crouch by their sides, constantly knocking them in the ribs with their elbows to keep the animals moving. When they approached a flock of wild geese, for example, the hunters would shoot from under the horses' neck or from between their legs.

(Note: Please observe that we described the horses above as being very tame.)

That may be like some of the well known fish stories; however Mr. Wilson tells it for the truth. The Rushville hunters just back from Arkansas are willing to vouch for this one however.

When they were down there, game was as scarce as the proverbial hen's teeth. Hunting out wild turkeys was like sitting out under a tree waiting for a squirrel in this country. No one had claimed a wild turkey as yet, until one day Ol Dale came carrying in a big bird, asserting that he got two of them but left the other one.

"I don't fool with 'em," said Mr. Dale as he exhibited the bird.

"Throw that away, that's a turkey buzzard," commanded Mr. Cambern, and Mr. Dale made haste to dispose of it in a distant brush heap.

While game may have been scarce, Frank Lawrence was not one who did not make hay while the sun was shining. He sighted a nice turkey hen one day and had a dead aim on her. Just as he was ready to pull the trigger, a big tom walked in his range right between him and the hen. He let go and killed both of them with one shot. True or not, it's a pretty good story, and Mr. Lawrence and all of his friends swear to it.

More About Bulletin Boards

Since our dissertation on bulletin boards last Saturday, a friend called attention to the American Legion bulletin board erected a year or more ago on the northwest corner of the court house lawn. It is now worse than useless; it's an eyesore, but the man who sold it to the local branch of the Legion and obtained advertisements from Rushville merchants made everybody believe that people would be crowded around it all the time.

There is a thermometer in the center of the board. The mercury in the bulb is still on the job, but everything else on there is antiquated. The advertisements, all over a year old, have long since lost their timeliness, and the bulletin board on the right side of the thermometer, which was supposed to carry late news of Legion activities, still contains a page from the Literary Digest of July, 1922, about the bonus bill, that was posted soon after the board was erected. A bulletin board on the left side of the thermometer is supposed to be for notices of meetings of fraternal and other organizations, but there is nothing to indicate that it was ever used.

A small sign gives the distances to cities on the state roads which cross at the corner of Second and Main street, but the paint is faded and it can scarcely be read.

12 Good Reasons Why You Should Have An Account With This Strong Association

BECAUSE it is ABSOLUTELY SAFE. We loan on First Mortgages on improved Rushville and Rush County real estate.

BECAUSE we never go over two-thirds the value and generally about one-half.

BECAUSE with every payment our security gets better.

BECAUSE WE HAVE NO BAD OR DOUBTFUL LOANS, and if any loss should develop in the future we have a fund of $3500.00 to take care of it. This fund can be used for no other purpose.

BECAUSE the title to the property is investigated and is "good" before we will accept the loan.

BECAUSE we require borrowers to carry insurance to protect us in case of loss by fire or storm, usually to the full amount of the loan.

BECAUSE we are under State Examination the same as Banks and Trust Companies.

BECAUSE our active officers are under a heavy SURETY Company bond.

BECAUSE you can deposit to suit your convenience and you can withdraw in whole or in part WITHOUT NOTICE.

BECAUSE WE PAY 6 PER CENT AND NOT 3 OR 4 PER CENT. If not withdrawn this interest draws interest as it is compounded.

BECAUSE if you do not own your own home, possibly we can help you accumulate enough to make your payment of a part of the purchase price and we can help you with the balance.

BECAUSE there are many more GOOD reasons and no BAD ones.

Drop in and see us, maybe we can be of some benefit to you.

We will be pleased to see you.

From The Daily Republican

Wednesday, Dec 9, 1908

John K. Gowdy is in receipt of a letter stating that John Dean Bickford, son of Dr. John H. Bickford, former pastor of St. Paul's M. E. church here, has won the "Stinecke" prize in Princeton University. The prize is given once in three years, the victor receiving $500 a year for three years. The many friends here of Dr. Bickford are greatly pleased over their son's success.

Dispatches from the metropolitan newspapers this morning stated that Robert E. Mansfield, son-in-law of Capt. John K. Gowdy of this city would be transferred from Luzerne to another district in Switzerland some time in the near future.

Rushville, very largely figured in the awards at the International Stock Show yesterday in Chicago. John E. Boyd of this city entered ten classes in the dairy show and carried off nine premiums.

Preparations are under way to make the bazaar which is to be given by the members of the Ladies Aid Society of the Main Street Christian church in the basement of the church Thursday afternoon and evening, a success in every particular. The Naomi Circle will meet with Mrs. Elsie Short in North Sexton street tonight.

Miss Mary English and Mrs. Alva Morrison of Walker township, were in this city today.

Mrs. Byron Sunderland and son Gowdy who have been the guests of Mrs. Belle Wilson in North Main street for the past week, returned to their home in Greenfield today.

John Dale Stewart of this city is reported to be in a very critical condition from an operation performed yesterday at the Reynolds sanitarium, Indianapolis, for gall stones.

Mrs. Amos C. Blackledge was able to be taken from the sanitarium to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Alexander, North Main street, Monday of this week, and her improvement continues.

Knowles Cassidy of Shelbyville visited his mother, Mrs. Angeline Cassidy, North Jackson street, today.

If you don't like some neighbor you can give his little boy a drum.

What will you give father? Give him asbestos gloves to wear while opening Christmas bills.

In giving a watch you can write "It's your time now," or "Hope you have a good time."

Candlesticks make good Christmas gifts. The big heavy kind are better for chasing burglars.

3 FOULS DISCONCERTING

McNamara Makes Three in Row, But
Lions Step Out Soon Afterwards
And Take Lead

The Rushville high school basketball team defeated Greensburg Friday night on the floor in that city by a ten point margin, 29 to 19, and after the first few minutes of play the locals took a lead, and were never headed, and only once or twice did Greensburg threaten to become dangerous.

In the curtain raiser the third team from the local high school downed the second team of Greensburg in a game featured by a low score of 8 to 6.

The Rushville team was greatly handicapped on the small floor and low ceiling at Greensburg, and played remarkably well under those handicaps. The Lone Tree city team fought hard at all times, and missed many shots at the basket, just as Rushville did.

Right on the first tip-off McNamara fouled, and Wahnman missed the shot for Greensburg. McNamara repeated a foul and Morrison scored the first point, and it was not soon until the third foul was called on McNamara, and Wickens missed another attempt for Greensburg.

Soon the locals began to uncork their fast team work, and Hilligoss took the ball through for a basket, and when Strasburger fouled Snoddy, the Rushville player made good his two chances on the fouls. The Lions worked the ball around their goal again, and were stretching themselves in an attempt to reach it, when Walker batted it into the net, for two more points, giving Rushville 6 and Greensburg 1.

Hilligoss again dribbled through for a two point marker, and Greensburg called time. Morrison scored on Hilligoss' foul, that gave Greensburg 2 points, with Rushville at 8.

Hilligoss scored on a foul committed by Meek, and Snoddy went under the basket for a field goal, making the score 11 to 2, and with the locals going fast. Morrison fouled again and Hilligoss threw the basket, but the referee ruled that it did not count because he stepped over the line in tossing the goal.

Greensburg took a spurt when Wahnman made good a foul and soon Wickens registered the first field goal for Greensburg, giving the home team 5, with Rushville leading at 11. Wickens missed a chance to score on Walker's foul, and Morrison tossed in a goal from near the center for Greensburg, that made the score 11 to 7.

Rushville substituted Newbold for Walker and Warth for McNamara at this point. Hilligoss threw a foul and soon Newbold tossed in a foul and with the score 13 to 7, Hilligoss found the basket twice, that gave Rushville 17 to Greensburg's 7, and before the gun went off, Morrison scored again from Greensburg, that made the first half end 17 to 9.

Right at the start of the second half Greensburg started a rally and in the first half minute Wickens and Wahnman got the ball on the tip-off for goals, that made the score 17 to 13. Snoddy then missed two chances on fouls, and Morrison for Greensburg missed a chance when Snoddy fouled him.

Snoddy again missed two fouls. Comella for Rushville dropped in his usual two point marker from the center of the field, and Newbold put Rushville in the front with a goal, making the score 21 to 13.

A field goal by Morrison and a foul by Wahnman gave Greensburg three more points. Hilligoss scored from the field, and soon afterwards missed two chances on fouls. Rushville seemed to be out of luck on fouls during this half, and missed many an opportunity.

Wickens scored on Warth's foul and Wahnman added two more points for Greensburg on a field goal, that again threatened to even up matters with Rushville, as the score was now 23 to 19.

Newbold for the Lions pulled the game out of the fire when he grabbed two field goals in rapid succession, boosting the count to 27, and with Greensburg behind at 19.

Hilligoss scored again from the field, and in the last two minutes of

HITTIN' 'EM
AND MISSIN' 'EM

The Lions shook the one point jinx last night, and their stock has now gone up ten points.

It was a good game, with each team fighting hard, and had it been played on a larger floor, the Lions no doubt would have doubled the count.

Newcastle wishes they never saw Knightstown. The K-town aggregation walked all over the Trojans in the last half, and won 38 to 15.

And to think that we have to play that K-town bunch January 4, on the night before we play Columbus. We make a motion to shoot the schedule maker for putting two games in a row.

Congratulations Columbus. We sorta believe that we could beat Shelbyville, if we had a chance.

Lots of good games in the county tonight.

Tough licks Colts. You got a chance coming to even up matters, and we'd begin to plan it right now.

Susie's band might as well staid home last night. They couldn't find room in the gym after they reached Greensburg. They marched down to the court house after the game and serenaded the tree on the court house tower. Police officer prevented them from bringing home a sprig.

The Lionesses met with tough luck also. Fairview outpointed them four points, 19 to 15, which isn't half bad.

Greenfield next. They're not so slow. Last night they defeated Charlottesville, 50 to 12, which looks like they can hit the basket.

Sawney For Milroy

Webb plays Milroy tonight at Milroy. It is the first game for Milroy, since playing Rushville, and they are about due to trim someone.

The next game then for Milroy will be with the Sir Walter Raleighs at Raleigh, and we sorta expect a real battle.

THEY'RE STEALIN' OUR PLUNDER

"Short Passes" is the name of the new column in the Shelbyville Republican, which has made its appearance. It is just as we expected, they are soliciting some of our business already. Listen to what they say:

The local fans who have been pestering "Hittin' 'em and Missin' 'em" over at Rushville, with Basketball communications may now send them to us. We will be glad to get them.

Connersville is away down in the hills. They played at Owensville last night, and tonight will tackle Central high school of Evansville.

How About Our Schedule?

That's steppin' out some Connersville. Next year, we would like to see our schedule makers line up with some of the teams in the big circle. Why not book games with Marion Kokomo, Muncie, Frankfort, Vincennes and the other big fellows? What if we do lose now and then, we will have the satisfaction of playing good company.

Even Rodunk might want a game

ORANGE TEAMS ARE VICTORS

Varsity Defeats Glenwood and Girls Whip Arlington

The Orange high school basketball team took a double header Friday night at Orange, when the varsity team defeated Glenwood 25 to 15, and the Orange girls defeated the Arlington girls 24 to 21.

Each game was well played, and especially the girls game. The girls displayed excellent passing and team work. The Orange team was composed of Frances Medd, Nellie Henry and Marjory May, forwards; Theresa Dawson, center; Mabel Bowen, Lucille Brown and Luree Lennons guards.

MANILLA DOWNS WALDRON
WITH 3 POINTS TO SPARE

Manilla went over to Waldron last night and downed the high school team of that place by the score of 24 to 21, in a fast game. The Manilla second team was not as fortunate as the first team, and they lost their game to the Waldron second team 11 to 3.

THREE GAMES PLAYED
ON FAIRVIEW CARD

Three games were on the card last night at Fairview and all three contests were fast and exciting. The Fairview girls won from the Rushville girls 19 to 15. The Milton high school won from the Fairview high school team 18 to 15, and in the big game of the evening the Fairview Athletic club downed the Morristown independents, 66 to 26.

GROWTH REMOVED FROM KNEE

The operation was performed after he returned home from the University of Illinois for Thanksgiving.

BASKETBALL TONIGHT

Webb-Milroy

night on the floor in Milroy, and each team is ready for the word to go. Milroy has had a rest of ten days and will put forth a big effort to win, while on the other hand, Webb will try to get back in the win column again, because of their recent defeats.

New Salem-Fairview

New Salem high school will have a double bill on the program tonight, when the varsity squad of the New Salem team plays the Fairview high school, and a curtain raiser will be played between the New Salem second team and the Homer first team. Two good games are anticipated.

Moscow-Newpoint

Moscow high school and Newpoint will meet in a basketball tilt tonight on the floor in Blue Ridge, and it is expected that the Moscow team will add another victory to their unbroken record for the season. Next Friday night they journey over to play at Manilla.

THREE GAMES PLAYED
ON FAIRVIEW CARD

Three games were on the card last night at Fairview and all three contests were fast and exciting. The Fairview girls won from the Rushville girls 19 to 15. The Milton high school won from the Fairview high school team 18 to 15, and in the big game of the evening the Fairview Athletic club downed the Morristown independents, 66 to 26.

CONTINUE WINNING STREAM

Raleigh H. S. Tosses Trim Morristown Friday Night

Raleigh high school continued their winning streak of this week by defeating the Morristown high school team at Morristown last night, by the close count of 29 to 24. The game was fast and close at all angles, but the Rush county team proved to be the best basket shots.

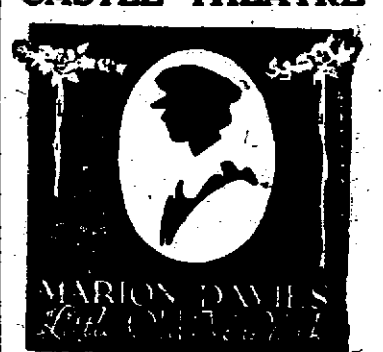

The Raleigh team will now turn their attention to the practice work, in preparation for their next game, which will be with Milroy at Raleigh, on Friday night.

RUSHVILLE SECONDS
LOSE AT CONNERSVILLE

The Rushville high school second team lost their first game of the season, when they journeyed over to Connersville last night, and dropped the game by 4 points, 23 to 19. The game was fast from the start, and the final outcome was in doubt until the gun went off at the end of the 40 minute period.

The Connersville team will play a return game with the locals here in the near future, and the Colts will be out for revenge.

The Young Ladies Mission Circle of the Main street Christian church enjoyed a splendid meeting Friday evening at the home of Miss Wanda Wyatt in North Main street. During the business meeting the Circle decided to hold a carnival December 17, in the basement of the church. The program opened with the scripture reading by Miss Wanda Wyatt followed by three discussions as follows: "Out Where the West Begins," Mrs. Nettie Glendinning; "The Redman," Mrs. Mary Thompson; and "The Highlanders," by Mrs. Paul Stewart. The program closed with the benediction. A delightful social hour was enjoyed at the close of the program, during which gifts were exchanged and delicious refreshments were served. The assisting hostesses were Miss Brenda Kinsinger, Mrs. Mary Thompson and Mrs. Paul Stewart. Twenty-four members were present for this meeting.

PARENT, TEACHERS BODY IS APPROVED

ville has such an organization. It helps to cultivate an acquaintance between the parents and the teachers which is necessary for the best interests of the school. The patrons need such an organization through which they may speak when occasions arise, and by means of which they may become acquainted with educational interests at large.

By E. G. McKIBBEN
(First United Presbyterian Church)
The parent-teachers association is a move in the right direction. The school shares with the home, some of its responsibility with reference to the teaching and the training of the children. This rather increases parental responsibility for a sympathetic and co-operative interest in school activities. Of those influences that determine character, it is said that 75 percent come from the home, 20 percent from the secondary schools, and 5 percent from the higher education. If we have taken proper care of the home influences, let us not neglect to do our part as regards the school. It is a fine thing for the teachers to invite a closer relationship with the home.

more inhabitants, under community chairmen. Community committees will be in touch with all citizens and organizations, to receive gifts to the Memorial fund and forward them to Association headquarters.
In order to insure upkeep of the Harding tomb and shrine for all time, a sufficient endowment will be settled on them out of the Memorial fund, according to plans of the board of trustees of the Association, of which all members of the cabinet are members. Records, mementos and books of the late president will be placed in a fireproof structure to be built adjacent to the home shrine. The trustees are anxious that the neglect and lack of funds which is menacing some of America's shrines shall never overtake the Harding Memorial.

It is the hope of the Harding Memorial Association that everyone who loved Mr. Harding will have an opportunity to contribute. School children's pennies and nickels will be as significant as millionaire's checks in the roster of givers.

Collection of the names of all school children donors in a permanent record for the Marion Shrine is a part of the Memorial plan. Teachers are asked to list children's signatures plainly on a substantial paper so that they may be bound and preserved as the tribute of the boys and girls. To each school room in which every pupil has contributed, an engraved certificate of associate membership in the Harding Memorial Association will be issued.

A similar enlarged certificate will be presented to adult organizations which contribute one dollar for each active member to the fund. Individual contributors of one dollar or more will also receive a certificate signifying associate membership in the Association.

HOMER SCHOOL

(Benlah Willis, editor)

Mr. Arend's English class is just now very interested in Ivanhoe, Rowena and Rebecca. We are also watching with keen eyes the plight into which Isaac, the Jew gets when he has to part with his "duckets". We have read fifteen chapters in "Ivanhoe".

The Freshman Latin class had a verb drill Wednesday. They were required to list and give the principal parts of about fifty verbs. Latin papers returned from Tuesday's work, and all made good grades.

Mr. Arend handed back our book reports Wednesday. He seemed well pleased with them.

The Misses LaNelle Krammes and Katherine Parkes visited school Wednesday.

A worth while lecture will be given by the Rev. Mr. Haley of Manilla on, "The Sunrises of Life" Tuesday night, December 18 at 7:30 o'clock. It will be given for the benefit of the Homer school. Admission 25 and 15 cents. Bring your friends. You are cordially invited to come out and enjoy meeting your friends and have a good laugh to drive away the cares of life.

Mr. Gard, secretary of the "No Tobacco" league, gave us an interesting talk on the tobacco habit Tuesday morning. He illustrated the effect of cigarettes on the different organs of the body. His talk was much appreciated by the general assembly of the school.

MANILLA SECONDS WIN

The Homer basketball team was defeated by the Manilla seconds Wednesday night, November 28. The first half ended 8 to 1 in favor of Manilla, but in the last half the Homer boys did some fine playing and the game ended 10 to 9 in Manilla's favor. The line-up and summary:

Manilla	Homer
Brown	F
Webster	F
Wilkes	C
Haley	G
Weingarth	G
Field goals	Kemp
Inlow 2	Johnston
Kemp	3
Substitutions	Phares for Webster
Wissing for Brown

Homer vs New Salem Saturday at 7 p. m. Rah, Rah, Rah, the boys got some good practice Wednesday night at Manilla.

The Sophomore algebra class is doing some good work in homogeneous equation and equivalent system. Santa Claus is peeping around the corner as we have heard that a small program is to be put on by the lower grades.

Mrs. Joy Baldwin is a graduate of the state normal. She has taught 7 years, and was teaching in Indiana University in the past year. She has taught in St. Augustine Florida two years. She is now teaching in this school, filling out a vacancy caused by the resignation of a teacher.

Our flag pole arrived Wednesday. We will soon have "Old Glory" floating before us.

CARTHAGE SCHOOL

(Babette Henley, editor)

C. H. S. came home with a hard fought victory after playing Raleigh last Wednesday night. Both teams had lost only one game previously, and the expectation of a closely contested game came true, regardless of the final ten point margin. The score zig-zagged through out the entire first half, and until the last ten minutes of play. The half ended 21 to 20 in favor of Carthage and the final score was 45 to 35. The clean playing was attributed to Co-

CASTLE THEATRE

GLENWOOD SCHOOL

The next regular meeting of the Parent-Teachers' club will be Tuesday December 11. An interesting program is being prepared—a three reel educational film being a feature of the program. Everybody is invited. The scoring of corn is still a feature of the work in agriculture. Later, testing this corn by the ragdoll method will be taken up. Each boy has made a rack on which to keep his selected corn.

The girls in the domestic science class have been divided into two sections. This week one section prepared and served lunch to the other. Next week the favor will be returned. Glenwood and Orange met last night at Orange. Coach Hinchman has started a little physical training in place of the regular basketball practice of which we are deprived. Let's go Glenwood, a team may be down, but she's never out.

The following story was written by Janet Martin, a pupil of the second grade, in Glenwood school:

THE TURKEYS NEST

Once upon a time a turkey went out to make a nest. It took a long time to find a place. When she found the right place, she said: "They may go to the east and they may go to the west."

But they'll never be able to find my nest!" She was so proud she went all the way home with her head high in the air.

The Gray Goose guessed that the nest was near the goose pond. The White Duck agreed. The Brown Hen guessed the hay stack. Though they did their very best they could not guess where she'd made her nest.

Cousin Ben, brother Fred, little Ben, mother and father all tried to find the turkey's nest.

And though they did their very best they could not find that turkey's nest. One morning a little later, into the farm yard came the turkey and following her came twelve little turkeys.

She said "I hatched them all in my nest down in the corner of the old rail fence."

"I tell you what, I did my best, when I found that place to make my nest!"

NEW SALEM

Rush Wilson, a Freshman has been absent from school for several weeks on account of sickness in the family.

Lewis Davidson has quit school on account of bad eyes.

Moody Bever, a Sophomore, has quit school on account of sickness.

Rev. W. R. Cady, pastor of the Little Platte church, addressed the school here on the Wednesday before Thanksgiving with a Thanksgiving message.

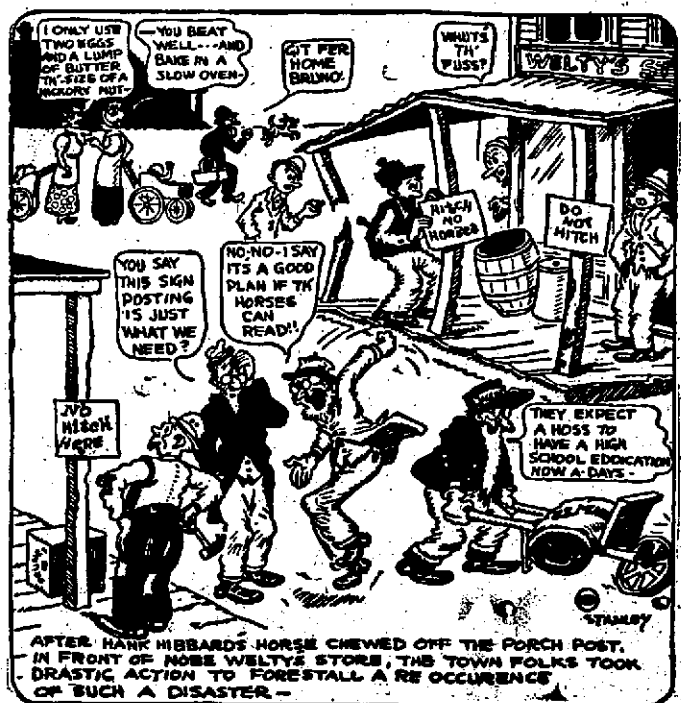

Rev. Pickett, pastor of the M. E. church at New Salem, addressed the high school here Monday morning.

The basketball boys first team will play Fairview Saturday night here, and the second team will play the Homer team. Everyone is urged to come.

On Friday night, December 14, the basketball boys will play the Center boys. The girls team will play the Center girls at this time also. Both games will be here at the school building.

THE OLD HOME TOWN

By Stanley

Superintendent Farthing visited the high school here Wednesday afternoon.

The domestic science girls of the high school have begun to serve noon lunch.

Miss Ona Owens visited her parents at Brownsville during the Thanksgiving vacation. Miss Owens is the primary teacher.

Next Tuesday night will be our Parent-Teacher's meeting. Superintendent Farthing, Miss Sparks and Mr. Cooper are on the program. There will also be special music and entertainment for pupils.

Honor roll for the month, is as follows: (Those with no grade below B.)

High school, Gail Browning, Mildred Wilson.

Eighth grade; Letha Williams, Georgia Mock, Mariamne Holman.

GINGS SCHOOL

(RUTH BILLINGS, editor)

The high school team of G. H. S. and also the 7th and 8th grade team played Fairview H. S. and grade team November 28. The Gings grade team was victorious over the Fairview grade team by the score of 30 to 2. Both teams put up a good fight and our grade team seems to be improving. The Gings H. S. team lost to Fairview 53 to 12, but the game was a hard fought battle from the beginning to end. The H. S. line-up and summary was:

Ging	Fairview
Eckart	F. Bunyard
Custer	F. McClure
Cortner	C. Hackleman
Gordon	G. Banks
Felts	G. Gwinnup

Keep fighting, Gings, you will surely win someday!

RICHMOND CONFERENCE

Those attending the Fourth Annual Conference for Older Boys at Richmond, during November 30, December 1 and 2, were Joseph Custer, Adrian Eckart, Robert Meyers and Clyde Gordon from this school, with Mr. Sipe, their chaplain. The boys were very much pleased and they gained a great deal of knowledge from the conference. They returned home Sunday evening and each gave an account of it at the evening services at the local church.

The domestic science girls have just finished some very attractive posters, each representing a diet slogan and one manner slogan. The slogans used were (1) Don't stuff; (2) Eat Vitamines and Grow; (3) Fresh Fruit and Green Vegetables for Health; (4) Eat Regularly; Don't piece between Meals; (5) Have You Had Your Pint of Milk Today?; (6) Manners Count.

CHRISTMAS

In preparation for Christmas, the music classes are working on Xmas cantatas and the one the high school is working on now is "There are Shepherds." Although art lessons are being given up to music, for completing the cantatas before Christmas, much is hoped to be gained.

CENTER SCHOOL

The following special reports in the history class were given this week: The Newburg address by Fern Stewart; the Ordinance of 1787 by Ruby Stewart; and the Constitutional convention, by Pervia Zimmerman.

For opening exercises Monday morning, Mr. Landrus gave a very interesting report of the Indiana-Purdue football game, which he saw last Saturday.

The Home Economics class served dinner to the teachers Wednesday. School was dismissed Thursday and Friday for Thanksgiving last week.

ARLINGTON

Arlington high school, with a crumple line-up, defeated Webb H. S. last Friday evening. The game was very exciting as the final score was 23-22, in an overtime period. Webb was leading 10-8 in the first half, came back in the second with a 19-8 lead. Victory seemed certain for Webb. With the score 22-11 and only five and a half minutes to play, Webb called time out. Then Arlington began to play. Stanley, floor guard, dropped a basket from center. Price got a long one from deep center, and Sunman followed with one under the basket. Thus the score was brought to 22-20 and only fifteen seconds left to play. "Red" Readle dropped one in from the side as the gun sounded, making the score 22-22. Arlington scored the winning point in the overtime period.

The attendance for this last month was somewhat lower than usual. There has been a great deal of illness caused by diphtheria and colds, and several of the boys have stayed out to shuck corn. Thus our average is only 95.3%.

There has been a decided improvement in the grades throughout the school system as shown by the increased number of A's and the smaller number of F's. Those leading the classes are as follows:

Pearle Macy	Senior
Edwin Stark	Junior
Norma Wall	Sophomore
Florence Houston	Freshman
Sylvia McDaniel	Eighth Grade

The teachers of Posey Township will attend the 6th congressional District teachers convention at Richmond, Saturday, December 8.

Red Cross Christmas Seals are now on sale at the school building. This is to remind you that Christmas is near and you had better get some seals.

Mr. Wagoner stopped in for a few minutes Friday. We were all disappointed that he did not stay longer.

THE RALEIGH SCHOOL

(Suess Wagner, Editor)

Sir Walter Raleigh's Tigers won another victory Thursday, Dec. 6, when they preyed on the Carthagean Blue Birds. The Tigers came on the floor with blood in their eyes, having lost their last game to the Blue Birds, and left the floor with the big end of a 24 to 25 score. The game was fast and the clever passing of each team was the feature of the game. The Tigers started scoring with a field goal, after which the scoring was slow on account of the almost impenetrable defense of each team. The margin was close at all time and with the score constantly changing from the favor of one team to the other, no dope could be worked out. The Tigers constantly changed their tactics and by some fast floor work and accurate shooting forced the Blue Birds to wither. Most of the scoring was done at close range by both teams and Newkirk, the raging Tiger floor guard, netted five points in two minutes. Quite a feat we'll say. All the Tigers were raging and, just noticing a note in "Hittin' 'em" written by the Blue Birds predicting a twenty point victory, will say that the Blue Birds are out of season now and will probably migrate South. It will probably be too cold for them to winter in the North as they have had their pinfeathers picked by the Tigers.

The Tigers won still another victory last night when they defeated the strong Morristown team by the score of 29 to 24. It was a fast game and the Tigers fought with the winning spirit.

The Tigers will next show their teeth to Milroy's nettlers next Friday night.

OTHER NOTES

The entire high school has put it's shoulders to the wheel and is determined to buy a new front curtain for the stage. They intend to do this by soliciting subscribers to "The Country Gentleman" for the Curtis Publishing Company. Half the subscription rate is retained by the high school.

The Junior class is very industrious and now has quite a bank account acquired by selling candy.
